

LOLEBEZI

Lower Zambezi National Park, Zambia

All year round

Set in the breath-taking, untouched wilds of the Lower Zambezi National Park in Zambia, Lolebezi is the latest lodge in the African Bush Camps family and will undoubtedly be one of the most spectacular.

Situated on five hectares of protected wilderness, the lodge has been designed to make the most of the one kilometre of private river frontage. Waking up with the majestic Zambezi River flowing just in front of your room is a truly exceptional experience!

The Lower Zambezi is a UNESCO World Heritage site and has some of the best wildlife sightings in the world. Famous for its leopard population and elephant herds, this amazing destination is best experienced on foot with one of African Bush Camps' experienced guides. Walking through the towering acacia forests, searching for the Africa's famous wildlife is simply one of life's unbeatable adventures.

The contemporary lodge effortlessly incorporates the luxury expected in a world-class safari camp with a modest elegance and simplicity that can only be found in the African bush. Designed for both family and romantic escapes, Lolebezi has four signature suites and two double family suites. Lolebezi's exceptional chefs bring together a mixture of traditional African, European and Asian dishes to create a Halaal friendly menu that is almost as amazing as the wildlife and views.

The name Lolebezi is derived from a combination of the owners' son's name "Lole" and "Zambezi", underlining the importance that is placed on family and the amazing experiences waiting to be shared.
