

A Day on Safari with African Bush Camps

Every day on safari unfolds in its own way, shaped by nature and your own sense of adventure. We take pride in crafting entirely bespoke experiences, but here's what a typical day might look like:

**Please note that your experience may vary depending on your selected safari itinerary and/or Experience(s). For a more accurate understanding, please speak to your Travel Advisor.*

5:30 AM

Knock, knock!

Your personalized wake-up call arrives with your drink of choice - tea, coffee, or even hot chocolate - delivered by one of our camp personnel. This isn't an alarm - it's a gentle start to the day, giving you 30 minutes to wake up with the sights and sounds of nature.

6:00 AM

Breakfast by the fire

The sun is beginning to rise as you gather in the main area for a classic safari-style breakfast. Expect freshly brewed coffee, fire-toasted bread, traditionally made oats, and daily homemade chef's specials.

6:30 AM

First adventure of the day

Game drive? Walking safari? Canoe or mokoro? However you explore, expect incredible wildlife encounters as you are guided by the best.

10:00 AM

Bush coffee stop

Pause in a scenic spot to stretch your legs and soak up the view. Enjoy homemade biscuits and snacks. Take a tip from our founder, Beks, and add a shot of Amarula (a South African cream liqueur) to your coffee for a little extra warmth!

12:00 PM

Return to camp

Unwind, freshen up, and settle in for a relaxed lunch.

1:00 PM

Siesta time

The warmest part of the day is yours to enjoy. Catch some sun by the pool, lose yourself in a good book, indulge in a spa treatment, or recharge with a nap in the shade. In the moments in between, sit back and watch as wildlife wanders past camp, a reminder that sometimes, the best experiences come when you pause.

3:30 PM

High tea

A sweet and savory spread prepared by our chefs (think freshly baked cake and delicious snacks) fuels you for the afternoon adventure.

4:00 PM

Afternoon safari

Set off for another unforgettable excursion into the wild.

5:30 PM

Sundowners in the bush

Happy hour, safari-style! As the sky turns shades of pink and gold, raise a glass to another incredible day. Whether it's a crisp G&T, a refreshing mocktail, or a perfectly chilled glass of wine, every sip tastes better out here. Pair it with tasty nibbles like biltong (a true African classic!), spiced nuts, and other delicious bites.

7:00 PM

Delectable dinner

Return to camp and gather around the crackling fire with a drink in hand as the stars begin to twinkle above. Savor a delicious, chef-prepared dinner beneath the vast African sky; It's the perfect end to a day full of adventure and wonder.

8:00 PM

Fireside stories and stargazing

Relax by the fire to enjoy another nightcap. Share tales of the day, listen to local legends, and indulge in some stargazing as you spot Orion's Belt, the Southern Cross, and the Milky Way. When you're ready, retreat to your suite for a dreamy night's sleep.
